

PUBLIC HEALTH 101

ESSENTIALS FOR EQUITY

2018 New Mexico Public Health Association Annual Conference

Wednesday, April 4, 2018

Atrium	7:15am	Registration Opens
Ballroom	8:00am – 10:15am	Plenary New Mexico Department of Health Cabinet Secretary Lynn Gallagher Navajo Nation Vice President Jonathan Nez
	10:15am – 10:45am	Break &amp; Poster Viewing NMPHA Election Voting Begins
Emergency Preparedness
TBD	10:45am - 11:30am	Communicate health information during public health emergencies in New Mexico, in accordance with the National Standards for State and Local Planning; Public Health Preparedness Capability 4; Function 5; Task 2 (P2, P3, P5, and P6). George Richards Poorly developed health communications during public health emergencies deny access to health services and programs for culturally and linguistically isolated, remote, and rural populations in New Mexico. This presentation addresses considerations like population culture and language, overall literacy, and health literacy when mobilizing populations to protect public health during emergencies.
	11:30am - 12:15pm	Preparing Pueblos for Emergency Operations and Tribal Law Tim Reeder Recent public health emergencies have demonstrated the importance of emergency preparedness for Tribal Nations. This session will review the complex nature of public health emergency preparedness in Indian Country, describe tribal legal preparedness, and discuss a collaboration between a state government and a Tribal Nation to enhance Tribal preparedness capacity.
Health Equity in Rural, Frontier, and Tribal Communities
TBD	10:45am - 12:15pm	Panel The Family Listening/Circle Program: The Experience of Community Action Projects to Promote Family and Community Wellness in three New Mexico Tribal Communities Lorenda Belone, PhD, MPH, Kayetrina Raphealito, Eloise Damon, AA, Janice Tosa, MA, Ardena Orosco, BS Presentation will focus on a CBPR partnership between three tribal communities and the University of New Mexico, and the personal experience of implementing a family prevention program that includes a community action project which participants select and complete based on their visions and/or challenges in their communities.

PUBLIC HEALTH 101

ESSENTIALS FOR EQUITY

TBD	Innovative Approaches for Access to Food, Housing, and Basic Needs
	10:45am - 12:15pm	Panel Mobile Farmers' Market: Forming partnerships and leveraging resources to improve health equity Natalie Donnelly, Tina Garcia-Shams, Juan Lopez, Mary Meyer, Helga Garza Presbyterian Center for Community Health, Street Food Institute, Kids Cook!, Agri-Cultura Network and First Choice Community Healthcare are working with communities to improve health equity by increasing access to locally grown produce as part of the Mobile Farmers' Market collaborative. Learn about our market on wheels and the partnership process.
TBD	Data Systems &amp; Epidemiology
	10:45am - 12:15pm	Workshop Data Mining of US and Mexican Data Sources for Public Health Decision-Making Najah Al-Shanableh The massive data sets generated by healthcare organizations are complex, extensive and numerous. Data mining provides relevant methodology and technology to move these comprehensive data into useful information for healthcare decision making. This workshop will discuss concepts and some data mining applications in healthcare, tips, and best practices.
TBD	Improving Access to Healthcare Resources
	10:45am - 12:15pm	Workshop Essentials for Equity in Health Care Reform Dolores E. Roybal, Nelsy Dominguez, Dennis McCutcheon The Affordable Care Act's future is uncertain. Proposed changes could eliminate gains in advancing health equity. This session seeks input in developing a health reform action network to support/mobilize stakeholders to advocate around a shared agenda regarding policies, services or activities impacting health care and health equity in NM.
Ballroom	12:15pm - 1:15pm	Lunch Statements by NMPHA Election Candidates
1:15pm – 1:30pm		Break
TBD	Environmental Health and Preserving Natural Resources
	1:30pm - 2:15pm	Sustainable Agriculture and Local Food Systems in New Mexico Celina Martinez, Carolyn Parshall, Elizabeth Pomo, Alissa Nelson Presenters will discuss sustainable agriculture and local food systems in New Mexico from a public health perspective that addresses research, practice and policy issues. Participants will learn about organic agriculture, local food systems, and food policy. An audience-centered discussion will follow.
	2:15pm - 3:00pm	New Mexico Department of Health Private Wells Program Strategies for Outreach to Well Owners Rose Galbraith, Nick Sharp The New Mexico Department of Health Private Wells Program (NMDOH-PWP) uses outreach strategies to reach and educate private well drinking water users. The NMDOH-PWP maintains partnerships essential to this outreach and uses evaluation data to guide outreach strategies.

PUBLIC HEALTH 101

ESSENTIALS FOR EQUITY

TBD	Health Equity in Rural, Frontier, and Tribal Communities
	1:30pm - 2:15pm	The 'WOW' factor: American Indian Elder health data boost action by the NM Indian Area Agency on Aging Lora Church Wow.... American Indian elders, age 65+, have the highest death rates in New Mexico. Learn and replicate the 4-part collaborative process the Indian Area Agency on Aging (IAAA) used to establish a strategic direction to emphasize Health Promotion/Disease Prevention among NM' 19 Pueblos and 2 Apache Tribes' senior service providers.
	2:15pm - 3:00pm	The Stories that data tells: Indigenous Data Sovereignty Matters! Dr. Michele Suina, Ph.d., Janna Vallo, MA, Eric Chrisp, MA Presenters will discuss various applications of Indigenous/Tribal Data Sovereignty (IDS) and Indigenous Research Methodology. Participants will be able to identify two key concepts related to IDS, to identify two ways tribal serving organization can support IDS and identify two strategies allies can use to support IDS.
TBD	Innovative Approaches for Access to Food, Housing, and Basic Needs
	1:30pm - 2:15pm	Looking through the eyes of the audience to develop successful programs: Did they have the answer the whole time? Glenda Canaca, MD, Jennifer Johnston, BS, D.E. Ross-Reed, MA Often, we develop programs that don't result in behavior change. Did we ask the audience about their barriers and motivations? We will explore the social marketing approach to develop successful programs, illustrate the framework with the Eat Smart to Play Hard program, and present the results of its recent evaluation.
	2:15pm - 3:00pm	FreshRx: An Evaluation of Food Prescription Program Design, Implementation and Impact Meredith Root-Bowman, MPH, MPA, Lionel Candelaria Jr., MPH expected May 2018, Tatiana Falcon-Rodriguez, MPH, Liz Skinner, BS, Heather Rivera, RN FreshRx is a program designed to promote healthy eating through monthly medical counseling and weekly prescriptions for fresh fruits &amp; vegetables at local farmers' markets. Attendees will gain insight into food prescription program impacts on food access and design and feasibility from both a clinical and farmers' market perspective.
TBD	Health Disparities in Diverse Populations
	1:30pm - 2:15pm	Applicant self-disclosure of LGBTQ status on health profession school applications Cameron Crandall, MD, Zachary Bosshardt, J. Michael Winer, Kory Tillery, Jacob Mayfield, MD Sexual and gender minority people are underrepresented in the health sciences. Many fear the impact that 'coming out' might have on their professional careers. Further, schools do not have the means to collect and store this information. We want to understand the barriers and facilitators to reporting during the application process.
	2:15pm - 3:00pm	Cisnormativity and heteronormativity in adolescent residential mental health treatment Jen Panhorst, LCSW Lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (LGBTQ) youth face disparities in quality of care they receive in residential mental health/substance use treatment due to heteronormative and cisnormative attitudes by providers. Discussion will include policies that have potential for rectifying these disparities.

PUBLIC HEALTH 101

ESSENTIALS FOR EQUITY

TBD	Improving Access to Healthcare Resources
	1:30pm - 2:15pm	Update on CHW Certification in New Mexico Carol Hanson, MPH The NM Department of Health/Office of Community Health Workers is committed to full integration of CHWs into health and social systems of care through certification. This very important profession needs the recognition and value they deserve at both state and national levels.
	2:15pm - 3:00pm	Opportunity Youth: Reconnecting Youth Survey in Santa Fe, 2017 Dan Green, Nancy Hood Youth who are not in school and are not working are at high risk of poverty, homelessness, hunger, substance abuse, physical and sexual assault, and disconnection from health care and other important services. This presentation will share results and methodology from the Reconnecting Youth Survey, conducted in Santa Fe, 2017.
TBD	Improving Access to Healthcare Resources
	1:30pm - 3:00pm	Panel Improving access to Healthcare for people with disabilities Lisa McNiven, MPA Disability Consultant, Stan Ross, Access Specialist, Miryam Miller, Physician, Dianne Lindstrom, Ingrid Hendrix, Nursing Services Librarian Access to Healthcare from the perspective of People with Disabilities will be discussed, with a short presentation followed by a panel of experts including consumers with disabilities. The short presentation will share information on barriers to healthcare that may result from attitudes, access to healthcare, lack of education regarding people with disabilities, inaccessible healthcare facilities, equipment, transportation issues. Panelist will include access specialist, a physician and 3 different consumers with a variety of disabilities and each will explain what has worked or not worked in terms of access to healthcare for this population.
	3:00pm – 3:15pm	Break
TBD	Improving Access to Healthcare Resources
	3:15pm - 4:00pm	Building the Pathways to Falls Prevention Cheyenne McCravey The New Mexico Department of Health created the Adult Falls Program to reduce fall-related deaths and injuries in older adults. The program encompasses home, community and hospital evidence-based prevention strategies to redefine the standard of patient care. The initiative has successfully reached at-risk, rural, and minority aging populations
	4:00pm - 4:45pm	Dismantling Teen Pregnancy Prevention Micaela Lara Cadena, MCRP, Raquel Z. Rivera, PhD It's common to hear that teen parents 'cost taxpayers a lot of money,' or that they 'have ruined their lives'; yet these statements are part of teen pregnancy prevention models built on inaccurate information. This session, led by Young Women United, will explore myths commonly associated with teen pregnancy.

PUBLIC HEALTH 101

ESSENTIALS FOR EQUITY

TBD	Health Equity in Rural, Frontier, and Tribal Communities
	3:15pm - 4:45pm	Panel Native American and Latino Immigrant workers in NM rural communities: Uniting against the impact of Wage Theft and other Employment Violations Elsa Lopez, Anna Rondon, Marina I Pina In 2016, the McKinley Worker Justice Coalition conducted a Health Impact Assessment to study the pervasiveness of wage theft, discrimination and health and safety violations, as well as the impact of these violations on the economic wellbeing and health of Native Americans and Latino Workers. At the same time, Somos' members in Southeast NM launched a campaign to tackle the health and safety violations and wage inequities in the dairy industry.
TBD	Innovative Approaches for Access to Food, Housing, and Basic Needs
	3:15pm - 4:00pm	Addressing health equity in the built environment through multi-disciplinary and multi-agency collaborations: the case for ABQ CiQlovía Tatiana Falcon Rodriguez, MPH, Bernadette Hardy, BA, Caerllion Thomas, AICP, Valerie Hermanson, AICP, Tiffany Terry, MCRP Participants will learn about the importance of multi-disciplinary partnerships in addressing health equity in the built environment. The panel will discuss the experience of planning and coordinating a large public health open streets events. Moreover, participants will learn about how to coordinate such a large-scale event in Albuquerque's streets including successes and lessons learned. The session will be moderated by County employee and facilitator of IDHCC Enrique Cardiel.
	4:00pm - 4:45pm	Get On the Bus: Health Impacts of Free Youth Bus Passes Christopher Ramirez, Baruch Campos, Chris Baca 'Get on the Bus' with Together for Brothers (T4B) and learn about our health impact assessment (HIA) and transit equity. T4B is implementing a HIA to explore the impacts of free youth bus passes on young men of color's access to education, employment and recreation and promoting healthy habits.
TBD	Improving Access to Healthcare Resources
	3:15pm - 4:45pm	Panel Raices Fuertes- Building Strong Roots to Address Opiate Pain Pill and Heroin Addiction in Bernalillo County William G. Wagner, PhD, LCSW, Anjali Taneja, MD MPH, Lorraine Cordova, FNP, Yvette Romero, Irini Georgas Raices Fuertes, Strong Roots: How Medically Assisted Treatment complemented by Psychotherapy, healing circles and other healing modalities is addressing Community Addiction in the South Valley of Albuquerque, NM

PUBLIC HEALTH 101

ESSENTIALS FOR EQUITY

TBD	Improving Access to Healthcare Resources
3:15pm - 4:45pm	Workshop  Building a Medicare Suite of Services for Triple Bottom Line Benefits  Anne Hays Egan Many FQHCs face ongoing budget cuts and are stretched to meet increasing levels of need. Expansion of Medicare services to older adults can (1) meet needs, (2) expand billings, and (3) significantly build net revenues. The workshop will provide an overview of a Suite of Medicare Services that can meet older adult needs and generate significant excess revenue over expenses.
4:45pm – 5:00pm	Break  NMPHA Election Voting ends at 5:00pm
TBD	5:00pm – 7:00pm	Student Poster Competition Judging  Plenary Speaker Reception

PUBLIC HEALTH 101

ESSENTIALS FOR EQUITY

Thursday, April 5, 2018

Atrium	7:15am	Registration Opens
Ballroom	8:00am – 10:00am	Plenary President & CEO of CommonHealth ACTION Natalie S. Burke Public Health Institute Vice President of External Relations Dr. Carmen Rita Nevarez
10:00am – 10:30am		Break and Poster Viewing
TBD	Health Disparities in Diverse Populations
	10:30am - 12:00pm	Workshop Paving the Path to Health Equity with Poetry Renée T. Despres, PhD, MPH Can poetry help break down cultural barriers to health equity? In this hands-on workshop, we'll use Sandra Cisneros short poem, 'His Story' to rethink the way we reach across cultures. If you're tired of the flat stereotypes of cultural competency training, this workshop is for you!
TBD	Health Equity in Rural, Frontier, and Tribal Communities
	10:30am - 11:15am	Workshop Tackling sexual assault when race and economic disparities stand as barriers Nancy Breton, Rachel Cox, Shannon Hoshnic This session will examine how and why sexual assault victimization, service utilization, and reporting differ between racial groups in rural and urban New Mexico. Recent quantitative and qualitative data from contractors of the New Mexico Department of Health Office of Injury Prevention and various databases will be presented and discussed.
TBD	Innovative Approaches for Access to Food, Housing, and Basic Needs
	10:30am - 11:15am	A Tale of Two Counties: How Bernalillo and Santa Fe Counties Are Building Accountable Health Communities Leigh Caswell, Kyra Ochoa, Elizabeth Peterson, Wendy Wintermute Social determinants of health matter. The Accountable Health Community (AHC) model addresses gaps between clinical care and community services and links individuals to services and resources that relate to unmet social needs. Bernalillo and Santa Fe counties share their experiences of AHC development and implementation in their communities.
	11:15am - 12:00pm	Housing Supports, Health, and Recovery for Homeless Individuals (HHRHI): Services for Individuals with Substance Abuse and/or Serious Mental Illness Jerrilynn Ritz, Shelley Alonso-Marsden Housing Supports, Health, and Recovery for Homeless Individuals (HHRHI) provides a variety of services for chronic homelessness, substance use disorders, and serious mental illness. HHRHI has shown significant increase in mental health services and decrease in mental health symptoms. We will discuss HHRHI, its impact, and implications for New Mexico.

PUBLIC HEALTH 101

ESSENTIALS FOR EQUITY

TBD	Health Disparities in Diverse Populations
	10:30am - 11:15am	Improving Health Equity for Children with Disabilities in New Mexico Dan Green, MPH, Anthony Cahill, PhD, Heidi Fredine, MPH, Linda Peñaloza, PhD This session will examine health and other disparities faced by youth with physical disabilities in New Mexico; assess the scope of available programs and services targeted at reducing those disparities and discuss additional areas in need of research, including additional questions generated by YRRS survey results and gaps in services.
	11:15am - 12:00pm	Sexual Assault and Disability: The Ugly Truth Mary Beresford, PhD, Larry Lorenzo, M.ED People with disabilities are at a higher risk of sexual assault than the general community of people without disabilities. Disability service agencies and victim service agencies need to be informed of these issues and learn how to work with the disability community
TBD	Health Policy &amp; Administration
	10:30am - 11:15am	Family Friendly Health Support Policies in Action Giovanna Rossi, Lisa Day Have you ever wondered what your organization could do to improve access to healthcare for your employees and their families? Participants in this session will receive an overview of research and examples from around the world and in New Mexico of organizations leading the way in improving access to healthcare.
	11:15am - 12:00pm	How Budget &amp; Tax Policies Are Linked to Health &amp; Health Equity Outcomes Amber Wallin, MPA Amber Wallin, MPA, of NM Voices for Children will show how fiscal policies are linked to health equity outcomes and why New Mexico needs an integrated 'culture of health' approach to policy making. This session will highlight how increased public spending in health and other social service areas as well as equity-focused tax policies-like the Earned Income Tax Credit-can lead to improved population health.
Ballroom	12:10pm - 1:30pm	Lunch Announcement of 2018 NMPHA Election Results Presentation of 2018 NMPHA Awards
1:30pm – 1:45pm		Break

PUBLIC HEALTH 101

ESSENTIALS FOR EQUITY

TBD	Improving Access to Healthcare Resources
	1:45pm - 2:30pm	Transforming Access to High Quality Tuberculosis Care for all New Mexicans Freida Adams, RN, Diana Fortune, RN, BSN New Mexico adapted the ECHO [Extension for Community Healthcare Outcomes] telementoring model to help address the need for cost effective TB education and training, case management, and increased coordination with Mexico to optimize resources. The model provides access to state, national and international experts to support site level TB practitioners.
TBD	Maternal &amp; Child Health
	1:45pm - 2:30pm	Breastfeeding Beyond Borders Elsa M. Quintana, BA, BCJ, IBCLC, RLC, CLE Innovative community project to increase breastfeeding rates, support, and promotion in rural and border communities of New Mexico through equipping community health care workers with tools, basic lactation education, and by providing a community venue where healthcare information can be disseminated bridging the gap to quality healthcare and reducing racial and health disparities along the border communities of New Mexico, Texas, and Chihuahua, Mexico.
2:30pm - 3:15pm	Disparities in Breastfeeding Duration among Teenage Mothers and Mothers Covered by Medicaid Glenda Hubbard, MPH Teen mothers and mothers covered by Medicaid were more likely to receive counseling on breastfeeding by a health care provider during a prenatal care visit than other mothers but were less likely to initiate and continue breastfeeding for nine plus weeks. This session explores the reasons for stopping breastfeeding, hospital breastfeeding experiences effecting breastfeeding duration and barriers to breastfeeding among teen moms and mothers covered by Medicaid.

PUBLIC HEALTH 101

ESSENTIALS FOR EQUITY

TBD	Health Equity in Rural, Frontier, and Tribal Communities
	1:45pm - 2:30pm	Centering the Margins: Priority Population Community Networks Advise and Address Tobacco Use Inequalities Alex Ross-Reed, Janna Vallo Learn how priority population networks address health inequities in tobacco use, prevention, and control. Hear from two community networks, Fierce Pride and the Southwest Tribal Tobacco Coalition, about their work to advise on tobacco prevention program efforts and develop culturally specific tobacco prevention materials.
	2:30pm - 3:15pm	Evolvement New Mexico: Youth Advocating for Equity Through Public Health Campaigns Nicky Besser Youth are powerful advocates for communities, but how do you empower them to make lasting changes? Policy work is a powerful tool for youth to gain experiences needed to be lifelong advocates for equity. Hear from New Mexico Evolvement youth about why they are passionate about their policy work.
TBD	Child &amp; Adolescent Health
	1:45pm - 2:30pm	Sneak Peek! New Mexico Youth Risk and Resiliency in 2017 Dan Green, Linda J. Peñaloza, PhD This presentation will share data from the 2017 New Mexico Youth Risk and Resiliency Survey (NM-YRRS). The presentation will include trends in key health indicators, and identify disparities that exist for New Mexico's young people who are at high risk.
	2:30pm - 3:15pm	Invest in Kids Now: Upstreaming New Mexico's Investments to Increase Educational &amp; Health Equity Diana Martínez, MPH, Jessa Cowdrey, BA, Representative Javier Martínez, JD, Representative Antonio 'Moe' Maestas, JD NM is ranked 49th in the nation on overall child well-being (NM Voices for Children, 2018). Join us to explore the potential impact of House Joint Resolution 1's proposal to upstream NM's investments from the Land Grant Permanent Fund by expanding early childhood education initiatives and services across the State.
TBD	Health Disparities in Diverse Populations
	1:45pm - 2:30pm	Achieving Health Equity for Pregnant Women and Infants in Oral Health Care Lyn Wilson-King, BA, Anthony Cahill, Ph.D., Heidi Fredine, MPH Pregnant women and infants from at-risk populations face significant oral health inequities. The HRSA-funded New Mexico Perinatal Oral Health Quality Improvement Project is designed to promote equity in oral health by integrating interprofessional oral care into primary care clinical practice throughout the state. Impact data will be presented.
	2:30pm - 3:15pm	Trends in Trial of Labor and Repeat Cesarean Delivery in the Border Region Katherine Stone, Jill McDonald, MS, PhD, Anup Amatya, PhD, Charlotte Gard, PhD, MBA, Jesus Sigala Repeat cesarean deliveries (CD) remain common among Hispanic women on the US-Mexico border. These births often occur without a trial of labor, suggesting that this population is more likely to have non-medically indicated CDs. Finding the source of these disparities is key to lowering rates of CD on the border.

PUBLIC HEALTH 101

ESSENTIALS FOR EQUITY

TBD	Innovative Approaches for Access to Food, Housing, and Basic Needs
	1:45pm - 2:30pm	A Promising Partnership to Address Health &amp; Hunger in New Mexico Albert Casella This session offers an example of collaboration between Roadrunner Food Bank and various public health organizations to address food insecurity in NM. It will overview the dimensions and scope of RRFB's Health &amp; Wellness Initiative. This session is useful for practitioners motivated to address hunger in their communities.
3:15pm – 3:30pm		Break
TBD	Improving Access to Healthcare Resources
	3:30pm - 4:15pm	Centro Savila: Combining Access, Prevention and Treatment Through Collaboration and Capacity Building to Build Health Equity in the South Valley and the International District. William G. Wagner, PhD, LISW, Sherri L. Gonzales, BA, Amanda R. Santiago, LISW, Dulce A. Medina Bustillos, BBA, Ivette Miramontes, BA Centro Savila utilizes capacity building, collaboration, and health promotion strategies to build health equity, and wellness in our communities. From training bilingual professionals to work in the community, gardening, and our panel will discuss access, prevention, treatment approaches, and supports with partners to enhance community building and healing.
	4:15pm - 5:00pm	Preliminary outcomes of a continuing education program for law enforcement to improve responses to people in behavioral health crisis Annette Crisanti, PhD, Jennifer Earheart, MA, Nils Rosenbaum, MD, Dan Duhigg, DO, Matthew Tinney, Detective APD The CIT ECHO is a partnership between the Albuquerque Police Department and the University of New Mexico's Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences. The Network provides training for officers to improve their interactions with people with behavioral health problems. Preliminary outcome data will be presented and implications of findings discussed.
TBD	Maternal &amp; Child Health
	3:30pm - 4:15pm	Preventing Child Maltreatment (PCAN): A Primary Prevention Model Susan Miller, Psy.D., Belinda Rand, MSN, RN, CPNS-PC, Venice Ceballos, Community Outreach Specialist, Diane Sanchez, MA, Ivette Bibb, MA The PCAN model is a primary prevention program that aims to prevent child maltreatment by identifying risk factors and providing education and support for families before abuse happens. The learners for the PCAN program are Community Health Workers, however, the program can be adapted for other learners.
	4:15pm - 5:00pm	Home Visiting Programs: A Partner for Growing Healthy Families Theresa Cruz, PhD, Leona Woelk, MA, Ivy Cervantes, MD MPH, Carolyn Salazar, BSN RN, Michael Weinberg, EdD Many NM children have adverse childhood experiences that lead to poor health outcomes. Home visiting with expectant mothers and families with small children improves health and reduces child maltreatment. Join us to hear how a multi-component, systems approach is being used to increase access and referrals to home visiting.

PUBLIC HEALTH 101

ESSENTIALS FOR EQUITY

TBD	Health Equity in Rural, Frontier, and Tribal Communities
	3:30pm - 4:15pm	Engaging males in preventing sexual violence: Results of a national survey Theresa Cruz, Ivy Cervantes Engaging males to prevent sexual violence in the first place is a relatively new field. Are U.S.-based organizations engaging males in the primary prevention of sexual violence? The UNM Prevention Research Center will share their study's findings and its public health implications.
	4:15pm - 5:00pm	The New Mexico Public Health Institute: Creating the Conditions for Change Charlie Alfero, MA, Renee Despres, PhD, MPH, Alisha Herrick, MPH, CHES Did you know that New Mexico has a Public Health Institute? Did you know that NMPHI wants to work with you? Come learn about the NMPHI, what we've done, what we're doing, what we plan to do, and how you can join us in redefining health in New Mexico.
TBD	Improving Access to Healthcare Resources
	3:30pm - 4:15pm	Improving Health Provider Workforce Diversity through Health Apprentice Model Myra Murillo, Alejandra Casarrubias, RN, Teresa Lechuga, Joseph McDonald, and Miquela Wiegel Through the Casa de Salud's dynamic health-providing aggregation, our distinctive Health Apprentice Program immerses its committed aspiring health care professionals in a variety of direct interactive medical experiences in order to ultimately encourage them to continue serving the underrepresented communities of New Mexico as a licensed health professional.
	4:15pm - 5:00pm	New Mexico MCH Public Health Training Institute: A Successful Partnership Sue Forster Cox, Stephanie Jackson, Pamela Sedillo, Sue Noell Stone, Kristine Tollestrup The New Mexico Maternal Child Health Public Health Training Institute is training the second cohort of students. Topics will include how the second cohort assesses the new model for the curriculum, challenges of teaching multi-disciplinary professionals from diverse professionals, retaining trainees, and highlights of the diverse partnership and future plans.
TBD	Child &amp; Adolescent Health
	3:30pm - 4:15pm	Pediatric Emergency Medicine on the Frontier: Keeping Kids in their Communities with Telehealth Christie McAuley, MA, Robert Sapien, MD, MMM Pediatric Emergency Medicine Specialists connect with rural, tribal, and frontier community providers in New Mexico through a telehealth cart to do patient consults for injured and ill children with the goal of keeping children in their own community, thus saving patient miles and costs to the state.
	4:15pm - 5:00pm	Early Success-NM: Socio-Emotional Screening in New Mexico Kirsten D. Bennett, Eleana Shair Healthy social-emotional (SE) development provides the foundation for human relationships, behavior and mental health. NM lacks the infrastructure to ensure young children are being adequately screened and assessed for SE development. Equitable and effective SE screening and referral for needed services contributes to the long-term success of NM children.